

Topical Call

Nevada Partners in Policymaking™ Leadership Development Program

Monday November 16, 7:00pm

Family TIES of Nevada is looking for motivated, interested individuals in Nevada who have developmental disabilities or are parents of young children with developmental disabilities, to participate in the Nevada Partners in Policymaking™ Class of 2010.

Join our call to find out about this unique, life-changing training opportunity!

You'll learn:

- What is Nevada Partners in Policymaking™?
- Who can apply?
- When and where is it being held?
- What is the time commitment?
- Where can I get an application?
- What is the application deadline?

Mary Bryant, Parent
Class of 1999

Early in Partners the "light bulb" went off in my head when I realized that there was nothing wrong with my daughter. Once I realized that and stopped apologizing for her differences, my role changed to positively educating people about the value of people's differences...

Who should attend?

Individuals who are considering applying, but have some questions, as well as professionals, family members or friends who want to know more about the Program.

Participants must register.

Call toll-free at 1-866-FAM-TIES (326-8437) or register online at www.familytiesnv.org/training/events

Presenters: Family TIES staff and Partner Graduates

Tiffany Hunter, Self-Advocate
Class of 2007

Partners showed me that small dreams make small changes and big dreams produce big changes. Thanks to the Partners class I now have the knowledge and inspiration to dream Big.

Nevada Partners in Policymaking™ is a project of

3100 Mill Street #117 Mill Street
Reno, NV 89502
www.familytiesnv.org